AN ACT

To repeal section 86.254, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to compensation for special advisors for the police retirement board.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 86.254, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted

2 in lieu thereof, to be known as section 86.254, to read as follows:

86.254. 1. Beginning July 1, 1994, in addition to any other annuity,
2 benefits, or retirement allowance provided pursuant to sections 86.200 to 86.366,
3 each present and future retired member after attaining the age of sixty years 4 shall, upon application to the board of trustees, be made, constituted, appointed 5 and employed by the board of trustees as an advisor on the problems of 6 retirement, aging and other matters, for the remainder of the retired member's 7 life, and upon request of the board of trustees shall give opinions in writing or 8 orally in response to such requests as may be required.

9 2. For the performance of duties required in subsection 1 of this section, 10 each retired member employed as an advisor by the board of trustees shall be 11 compensated monthly in an amount of [ten] fifteen dollars per month multiplied 12 by the number of years the retired member is past the age of sixty years. The 13 compensation provided by this subsection shall be adjusted annually. No funding 14 shall be required prior to the effective date of this benefit.

15 3. Beginning October 1, 1999, in addition to any other benefit provided to 16 any surviving spouse pursuant to sections 86.200 to 86.366, each present and 17 future surviving spouse of a member after attaining the age of sixty years shall 18 upon application to the board of trustees, be made, constituted, appointed and 19 employed by the board of trustees as an advisor on the problems of retirement,

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

20 aging and other matters for the remainder of the surviving spouse's life or until 21 the surviving spouse remarries, whichever is earlier, and upon request of the 22 board of trustees shall give opinions in writing or orally in response to such 23 requests as may be required.

24           4. For the performance of duties required in subsection 3 of this section, 25 each surviving spouse of a member employed as an advisor by the board of 26 trustees shall be compensated monthly in an amount of ten dollars per month 27 multiplied by the number of years the surviving spouse is past the age of sixty 28 years. The compensation provided by this subsection shall be adjusted annually.
